True Merit-Based Hiring

Imagine an employment process that helps your business to become more socially conscious in it's hiring practices while locating the best talent to grow your company. It's coming soon.

As an Employer

A positive reputation for your commitment to normalizing diversity.

Quality Talent Acquisition. Eliminate bias & broaden your company's horizons.

Increased productivity & revenue. Companies which are more ethnically diverse were more than 35% percent more likely to outperform their industry counterparts.*

As a Job Seeker

Apply to job listings without employer biases such as gender, race, age, etc. affecting the process.

Gain access to the jobs you deserve using the skills you worked hard to get.

Feel safe & respected during the hiring process. Employers will only see your talent & skills allowing you more space to compete in your industry.

Level Playing Field is a WordPress plugin that anonymizes the job application process, fights gender & racial bias, and promotes true merit-based hiring. For more information go to yikesinc.com/lpf
